Officials said the additional rooms will allow for 44 additional beds, totaling 79 for normal use and up to 95 in emergency. Rev. Ben Pierce, pastor of First Methodist Church, gave the invocation.

Town Meeting Set To Discuss Sales Tax Pros, Cons

Council Invites Talks Tuesday

City officials Tuesday night advised The Herald plans are underway to hold a Town Meeting 7 p.m. Tuesday, November 14, to discuss the possibility of a 1 percent City sales tax.

Mayor Bassel Wilson said arrangements are being made to hold the meeting in First Methodist Fellowship Hall.

Councilmen John Hays, Starrett Hickman, Lawrence Zotz and Mayor Wilson said consideration of the proposal would enable Cameron to vote on the issue now, rather than wait until 1969.

Taylor, Elgin and Austin are among 14 communities of 15 in Texas already approving it.

Using a factor of $5.02 collected annually, Cameron tax coffers could anticipate about $25,000 to $30,000 from a 1 percent sales tax, City Attorney Charles C. Smith said. Texas League of Municipalities made the $5.02 estimate.

Temple and Waco are among Texas communities voting on the issue December 5, Wilson said.

"Approval of this type of proposal would at least defer new tax raises on property," Zotz said.

Officials said the Council had been discussing the possibility for several weeks.

"We must get a vote in by January 1 or such a vote would have to wait until 1969," one councilman said.

14 OF 15 FAVOR

Cities representing about one million residents have approved the sales tax vote in 14 towns, according to an October 3 Texas Municipal League bulletin. Average ratio was about three or four to one for the sales tax.

Towns voting for it were: Aransas Pass, Austin, Brackettville, Corpus Christi, Elgin, El Paso, Henrietta, Ingleside, Nacogdoches Orange Grove, Port Aransas, Taylor, Texarkana and Wichita Falls.

Electra defeated the sales tax proposal 549 to 174, the only town of the 15 turning it down.

Efforts were underway in North Texas among communities in Tarrant and Dallas Counties to try to get a sales tax vote December 5, according to the Dallas Morning News. Dallas votes on it December 5.

Dallas Mayor Erik Jonsson was quoted in the story remarking that the success in the 14 of 15 cities "indicated the public is aware of the need of the local tax."

Jonsson said "a 1 percent sales tax would not represent a 'so-called regressive legislation to place a burden on the person least able to afford it -- the 'little man' ".

The city sales tax legislation was approved for a local option election. It excludes groceries, automobiles, rents and other items of necessity.

IN OTHER ACTION:

The Council voted to paint the front of City Hall and upstairs of the fire station and to reroof the fire station building.

—Accepted the resignation of Don Cochran who officials said was returning to Michigan to work with Universal Airlines. He had just signed a contract with the City two weeks before to run the City Airport.

—Applied for additional airport paving to Federal Aviation Agency.

—Heard routine reports from city and street departments which showed graveling underway on some streets and installation of 100 feet of 1½ inch waterline for three service connections.

With F.M.I.

A rather misleading ad in a national magazine this month asked industrialists "Do your executives and their wives want to live in the sticks?" and goes on to relate some of the dubious attractions of the metropolitan city. An annoying ad, but it does point up the fact that industries ARE leaving metropolis and the cities are feeling the competition of the smaller, fresher towns.

A point in fact is a recent (at least, recent to the ears of 108) recording by semi-folk song writer, singer Tom Lehear. Titled, "Pollution, Pollution", it warns the American city dweller "don't drink the water and don't breathe the air. One can breathe only as long as one doesn't inhale."

108-108-108

The directors of Cameron Industrial Foundation, Inc. were called for a 4 p.m. meeting of the group for further industrial consideration.

Plans for an industrial fund drive for the non-profit organization were probably to be explained at the meeting.

GUNS, AMMO LIFTED FROM R'DALE STORE

Guns and ammunition valued at about $3,000 were taken from the W. T. Pearson & Sons Hardware store in Rockdale Sunday night.

Sheriff Carl Black said a back window in the store had been forced open and the stock of rifles, pistols, and ammunition were taken. A showcase of watches was also emptied, Sheriff Black said.

He added that nothing in the store had been damaged and said "They evidently knew what they wanted and where they were." Fingerprints were being checked by the Dept. of Public Safety in Austin.

Water Systems Spark New Life

Investment in water systems in Milam communities has increased property transactions and sometimes doubled the average selling price around the water facilities.

Many land sales are to people in Cameron, Rockdale, Hearne or Bryan who want space for a few horses or other livestock, according to Henry Ivey, county supervisor for Farmers Home Administration.

"They wouldn't have considered moving out to these communities before the water systems were put in," Ivey commented.

Building in Gause is at an all-time high and available rent property is occupied. A $20,000 home was recently completed and about 30 other homes built or remodeled and repaired since the water system was installed.

Ivey said an additional seven applications were waiting approval through his office for building or home improvements. He was certain others were being planned in Gause through private financing.

Recent property sales in the Marlow community have been reported at about double the price of pre-water system transactions.

One buyer remarked "If it hadn't been for water pipes I wouldn't have bought at any price."

On the North Milam water system, which includes Ben Arnold and Burlington, property for sale for some time at $135 an acre recently sold for $200 an acres.

A Ben Arnold resident remarked "The water system gave us new life. This is the first time in many years that two new homes were being built in Ben Arnold at the same time."

The North Milam system is planning expansion to include Yarrelton, Marak, Clarkson and the area north of Burlington. Ivey said it would add about 120 new subscribers.

Other water systems include:

Branchville where pipe construction will probably start in two or three weeks with a tentative completion date of January 1;

Salem - Elm Ridge is in the process of final approval. Attorneys and engineers are completing work this week.

Both facilities will start with 41 subscribers.

Light Vote Seen For Amendments

A light vote is predicted for Saturday's election on six constitutional amendments involving tax money. Only three absentee ballots were cast in Milam County before the deadline Tuesday.

All county polling boxes will be open from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Amendments to the State Constitution being considered are:

No. 1 - Would allow counties to put all county taxes into one general fund.

No. 2 - Would permit municipalities, other political subdivisions, and state-supporting entities with hospital districts to participate in establishment, levy taxes or issue bonds for maintenance, support or operation of mental health services, mental retardation srvices, or public health services.

No. 3 - Would extend the Veterans' Land Program by authorizing sale of bonds to increase Veterans' Land Fund $200 million making a total to date of $400 million; extend the life of the program and increase rate on loans to Veterans from 4½ percent to 5½ percent.

No. 4 - Would authorize counties to pay medical bills, doctor bills and hospital bills for county and precinct law enforcement officials who are injured in their official duties, pay salaries while they are incapacitated, not beyond the terms of the office to which they were elected or appointed.

No. 5 - Would authorize sale of $75,000,000 in bonds for land for State Park sites and to develop State Parks.

No. 6 - Would allow non-elective state officers and employees to serve in other non-elective offices or positions under this state or the United States until September 1, 1969 and thereafter only if authorized by the Legislature; prohibit elected officers under this state or the United States from holding any other office or position under this state; and adding members of the Air National Guard, Air National Guard Reserve, Air Force Reserve, and retired members of the Air Force to the list of persons exempted.

County Jury Finds Stifflemire Guilty; Sentence Probated

A six-member County Court jury last week found Johnnie Stifflemire, 19, of Houston and formerly of San Gabriel, guilty of firing a gun into a schoolhouse.

He entered a plea of not guilty.

County Judge O. B. Harden fined Stifflemire $100 and $56.60 costs and set two-year probated sentence in County Jail except for 30 days he is now serving. Trial was by jury and sentencing by judge under the Criminal Code.

Stifflemire first was indicted by a Milam Grand Jury on a felony charge of malicious mischief in July, following charges of firing into a public building in Thorndale in a May 15 incident. The charge later was reduced to a misdemeanor and moved to County Court for trial.

County Atty. John Henderson Jr. asked the jury for a year's confinement in County Jail.

Jurors were: Ben Hardie, foreman; Miss Mildred Thornton, Mrs. Alvin Hefft, Jerry Plachy, Clarence Posey and Harry Tag.

Milam TB Assoc. Makes Final Drive For Christmas Seals

Christmas Seal letters were mailed to county residents this week by the Milam County Tuberculosis Association. This will be the final Christmas Seal campaign for the local TB Association volunteers with a new tax-supported program going into effect by 1969.

Mrs. Mildred Wheeler, Christmas Seal chairman, said 10 new cases were found in Milam County last year and the Christmas Seal funds were needed to continue tuberculin testing, chest X-rays and education through the next year.

"TB is contagious, not inherited," Mrs. Wheeler said, "and it is important that school children be tested and adults who need medical attention or hospitalization aided."

Under the new tax-supported program recently announced the Texas Department of Health will keep a state-wide case register of all TB cases and will handle tuberculin testing of all first and seventh grade pupils and examination for TB of all school personnel each year.

The Tuberculosis Association will be set up on a regional or area basis rather than by counties. Primary function after 1968 for the Association will be educational. Funds will still be derived from the annual Christmas Seal campaign, but it will be an area, rather than county campaign. Area directors will be elected from each county.

ALL ABOUT MILBUR...

New Drill Boom Ahead?

By Lloyd Albertson

Milam County's Milbur Field with no new drilling activity for several weeks, is stirring interest among geologists and oilmen familiar with the area.

According to rumors in the Texas oil patch, they like what they see—the prospect for expansion of both the oil field and drilling boom, now lagging, in the days ahead.

What caused this upsurge of interest was the recent bringing in of the Clark Oil Company, and R. E. Smith No. 1 E. A. Cotton in adjoining Burleson County. This wildcat, geologists believe, is located on a new trend and probably will open a whole new producing area.

If they are right, it is only another unexpected development in the field, which has been full of surprises. Few other fields, for instance, have gotten their start from a dry hole.

DISCOVERY WELL

J. O. Wolfe, a geologist with the Huber Corporation, is credited with discovering the Milbur Field. Late last year the company started its first wildcat on the H. H. Coffield lease in Henry Martin Survey. It was a dry hole. But apparently it gave Wolfe some needed information.

Moving only 500 feet southwest, Huber and Smith drilled their No. 2 H. H. Coffield -- and hit pay in the basal Wilcox. The well was completed early in January and flowed 84 barrels per day on potential test.

The discovery set off a leasing campaign by more than a half-dozen companies. It wasn't until May, however, that Luling Oil & Gas Company drilled its No. 1 Joe Martin 2½ miles to the northeast, the 56-barrel per-day discovery that opened the North Milbur Field, and really rolled the boom.

Today, there are four producers in the Milbur Field, 10 in North Milbur.

All four wells in the Milbur Field are by the J. M. Huber Corporation and R. E. Smith on H. H. Coffield acreage. North Milbur's 10 wells include one by Luling Oil & Gas Co. and F. Lee Watson on the Joe Martin land, two by Luling and Houston Petroleum Co. on the Alton Coldiron tract, three by Ashland Oil & Refining Co. on Blackburn - Trammell acreage, three by Huber and Smith on the W. P. Hogan lease, and one by them on the Preston H. Perry tract.

Several dry holes and the No. 1 Coffield also have been drilled.

Beside the companies that have wells in the field, a number of others have leaseholdings. These include the H. L. Hunt interests of Dallas, Chapman Oil Co., Cabot Corp., W. P. Holloway of Austin, H. H. Coffield, Production Enterprises and Varn Oil Co. of Wichita, Kansas. Also holding leases there is a pioneer Milam County oilman, Wayne C. Pemberton.

Discovery allowable for the wells is 60 barrels a day for 30 days a month. Since the average depth of a well in the area is only about 2,800 ft. a dry hole can be drilled for $10,000 and a completed well costs around $30,000. This allows a quick repayment in 7 months.

COMBO NAME

Milbur derives its name from the first syllables of Milam and Burleson Counties, since it lies along their border line.

The Clark Oil and R. E. Smith No. 1 E. A. Cotton is not included since it is located in Burleson County about six miles southwest of Milbur. It will be designated the discovery well in the new Bur-Mil Field.

The Cotton produced 31 barrels of oil per day on perforations at 2,655 feet from the basal Wilcox.

This wildcat is attracting a good deal of interest among geologists. To understand this, it is necessary to understand a little of the geology of the area.

The Milbur - North Milbur Field is believed to lie along an ancient coastline of the Gulf of Mexico.

Geologists say production in the field is from a delta front facies sand bar in the Poth and Basal Wilcox created by the delta systems of Wilcox time thousands of years ago. This sand bar runs in a northeast - southwest direction controlled by an up-to-the-coast fault which is part of the Luling - Mexia fault system.

The No. 1 Cotton discovered production from the lower Wilcox in what appears to be a separate sand bar controlled by the down-to-the-coast fault forming the northern part of the graben system.

Geologists familiar with the area expect the bar to extend at least six miles to the northeast and to thicken as it nears the axis of the delta system.

In short, they think production can be extended from the No. 1 Cotton five or six miles northeast to the Milbur Field, greatly enlarging the field.

DRILLING TO TELL

Only future drilling, of course, will determine whether they are right. That should not be far away. Clark Oil & Refining and R. E. Smith have already scheduled their No. 2 Cotton. And other companies will schedule wildcats of their own, starting the drilling boom once again.

Back in the early 1920s when the Minerva shallow field was getting started, a reporter, probably influenced by the boom, started his news story for The Herald this way:

"With seven wells on the oil sands and more spudded, it looks like the goose that laid the golden egg is about to smile on the operators in the field."

For a goose to smile would be something unusual, but then the reporter was writing about an unusual goose. Perhaps the same old bird, now 45 years later, can smile on operators in the Milbur - North Milbur and Bur-Mil Fields.

Yoe To Meet DelValle In Playoff

By Fritz Pratt

Up-and-coming is the game for bi-district between the Del Valle Cardinals and the Fighting Cameron Yoemen November 17.

The Cardinals have a great reputation for being competitors. Last year Del Valle figured into a 3-way tie with Copperas Cove and Round Rock. They won by a coin-toss.

Returning from last years strong team on the line are Byron Guest, a 190 pound tackle; Mike Moran, a tackle weighing 210; Bill Smith, 185 pound guard; John Hilgers, 155 at guard; Ross Burgdorf, a 190 pound center; and ends Bobby Moreland and Louis Arnold.

The only returning back is Wilbur Williams, 140 pound scatback.

The Cardinals have been traveling under the guidance of John Lamb, who is a switch over from last years defense.

The workhorse fullback of the Del Valle squad is Josh Brown, a 160 pounder. Halfbacks are Williams and Charles Anderson, a fleet 140 pounder.

The brutal Cardinal defense which scored four shut-outs last year, has 8 returning lettermen. Most of these men are two-way performers, except for 240 pound Jesse Burditt.

It will be up to this mighty line of Del Valle to open holes in that stony Yoe defense.

The Yoemen are now District 17-AA champions. They have proven to be a more coordinated and agile team than any other in this district for the fourth year in a row.

And yet, think back to the things you thought, or heard, as you headed toward Copperas Cove a month ago. Was it something like "Well, I guess the Yoe district winning streak is over. If they lose this one, they'll never make it."?

But the Yoemen came up off the floor. Rockdale, Taylor, Rosebud, and Georgetown had each put a roundhouse punch on the Cameron squad, and it looked like the boys were down for good. But, they rose to the occasion, struggled up, and rolled over the Cove Bulldogs in winning stride.

Fans took heart; showed a little hope. They got behind the team. The Yoemen entered play by traveling to Hearne. Hearne—the team that Cameron would have to battle for district, or so everyone thought. Hearne—the team that the Yoemen crushed in a brilliant shut-out.

The frenzy of the fans grew. Caldwell came next. Caldwell—with all of its experience. Caldwell—who Cameron beat in a fourth quarter rally!

The Navasota Rattlers took the Yoemen headon, and the game proved to be as predicted—a breather for the Yoemen.

Last week, the Yoemen met the real challenger—Giddings. And a shut-out evolved from the Yoemen ability to make their own breaks and then capitalize on them.

District Winners — 17-AA champions. The Fighting Yoemen are clearly a breed of champions.

CAMERON, TEXAS'

THEY'VE PLAYED IT SAFE FOR 45 YEARS

The Biehle brothers . . . Ed, an electrician; Awalt and Adolph, crane operators . . . have worked a total of 45 years at Alcoa's Rockdale Works without a disabling injury.

What's so unusual about that?

Well, nothing really, because statistics show that more than 3,100 Alcoans at Rockdale and Point Comfort are five times safer on their jobs than they are elsewhere.

Long ago the Biehles, like other Alcoans, learned that prescribed methods for use of tools were the safe methods—and they have always utilized standard safety equipment faithfully.

In the Texas communities where Alcoans live you are likely to see a man wearing safety shoes and safety glasses mowing his yard. It may seem unusual to some people, but not to an Alcoan who practices safety automatically.

After all, he would like to be safe everywhere.

Pork, Turkeys Good Buys For November Meals

COLLEGE STATION

November is a month for hay rides, weiner roasts, after-the-game parties and all kinds of fun activities where food plays a major role.

Be sure to have quality, quantity, and just the right foods on hand, reminds Gwendolyne Clyatt, Extension consumer marketing specialist. The less tender cuts of beef, such as chuck steaks, rump roasts and ox joints, can be tastiest of dishes – be sure to cook them with moist heat. The moisture softens the meat fibers and connective tissue and produces tender meat – it also allows seasonings to penetrate for extra flavor.

Pork shoulder and loin roasts, bacon and sausage are good choices in that department. Large size turkeys, fryers, chicken hens and eggs are worthy of your consideration if you are looking for economical protein foods.

Fresh fruits and vegetables in good supply include apples, Italian prunes, Tokay grapes, bananas, cabbage, sweet potatoes, yellow dry onions, tomatoes, cooking greens, corn, carrots, broccoli and cauliflower.

This victory pushed the Eagles to within one game of the 24A title. The Rogers team now has a 5-0-1 district record and a 7-1-1 season tally. This week the Eagles travel to meet the Bartlett Bulldogs to decide the district champ.

Mayfield turned in a magnificent performance as he compiled 116 yards on 18 carries, and accounted for 25 of Rogers' 31 points. Mayfield collected his points on a 65 yd punt return, 2 one yard TD plunges, 4 PAT kicks, and a 27 yd field goal.

Fullback Larry Griffith, still vulnerable due to innuries, accounted for the final Rogers TD on a 4 yd line buck.

The Lions gave a brutal battle for the 1st half, limiting the Eagles to a 10-0 lead at halftime. Led by Lion tailback Ronnie Falls, Granger piled up 252 total yards offense against a usually solid Rogers defense.

Rogers scored on its first possesion of the ball with a 55 yd cruise to paydirt. A Mayfield TD was nullified by a penalty, so he booted a 27 yd field goal on 4th down. Rogers led 3-0.

Mayfield added 7 more points before halftime as he took a John Simcik punt, hit his side line, and sprinted 65 yds to a 6-pointer. A key block was thrown by Ricky Raley, making the TD possible. The Eagles led 10-0 at intermission.

Rogers took the 2nd half opening kick and stomped off 69 yds for another TD. Mayfield got the final yard, booted his conversion kick, and put the score at 17-0.

The fourth quarter, a Lion punt fell into Mayfield's hands. He returned the ball to the Granger 41, and from there it was smooth sailing with Mayfield plunging into the end zone from 1 yd out.

The final Rogers TD came at the tail of a 38-yd march with Griffith hitting the goal line from the 4 yd marker.

The Lions gave a scare to the Eagles now as they beat a path to the Rogers 5. But the Eagle defense bucked up, forcing Falls to try a field goal. The attempt went wide.

The Eagles marched from their 20 to the Granger 22 before being held. Deciding to settle for a field goal, Mayfield booted. But the kick went wide and scoring stood at 31-0.

Rosebud Takes Moody 33-0 For District Victory

A tough Panther defense led by Dean Pomykal helped down the Moody Bearcats by a score of 33-0.

The Panthers now stand 5-0 in district. No matter how the Rosebud squad comes out of the Lorena game this week, the Panthers will win district. The nearest contender to the District 22A title is Mart, who Rosebud whipped earlier this season. Therefore, the Black Panthers are District 22A champs for 1967.

A stony Panther defense blasted the Bearcat offensive tries by limiting them to 77 yards total offense. On the other hand, the Rosebud offensive team ran circles around the Moody squad as Larry Spivey ran up 97 yards on 15 carries. But, the top ground gainer for the Panthers was John Coulter, who compiled 139 yards on 21 carries.

Coulter tallied 39 of those yds on an end sweep to a TD. This finished off a 51 yd drive. The conversion missed and the score stood at 6-0.

The second quarter saw Spivey take off right tackle for 11 yards and a 6 pointer to finish a 23 yd drive. Spivey's PAT boot was good and the Panthers led 13-0.

Later in the same quarter, Rosebud field general James Duffie hit end Larry Koslosky with a 15 yd aerial for a TD. This play capped a 37 yd drive. A Raymon Puente pass to Mike Jackson was deflected on the 2 point conversion try. Halftime score was 19-0.

Early in the 3rd quarter, Mike Green put a punt on the Moody 10 with a 45 yd boot. Here the Bearcats fumbled, with Rosebud recovering. A Puente pass to Coulter was good for 6 points. Duffie's PAT kick put the Panther lead at 26-0.

The final Rosebud TD came on a 1 yd burst by Coulter. Duffie's PAT kick finished scoring at 33-0.

Moody's only penetration into Panther territory was halted on the 39.

All around stars for the 22A champs were Pomykal, Spivey, Rex Olson and Coulter, who drew praise from their coach, Rodney Hudson. Moody top gridsters were Tommy Thomas, Mike Aulie, and Lavender Moore.

This loss dropped Moody's league record to 3-2, finishing off a three-game winning streak. The Bearcat season record now stands at 4-5.

Milano Rolls Over Trinidad, 46 - 0

Milano Eagles made short work of the Trinidad Trojans in a District 12-B six-man tilt in Milano last Friday night.

In 6-man football, the rules state that if any team takes a 45-point lead over another, the game should be halted. This rule was applied with less than a minute of the second half played. Robert Silva's 50 yd romp to paydirt, followed by Grover Morgan's PAT kick, were the scores that pushed the lead to 46-0.

Morris Popham, Eagle star halfback, turned in his usual brilliant performance by leading the yards rushing column. He also took the top in scoring, with sprints of 55 yds, 66 yds, and a 65 yd punt return, all to paydirt.

Joe Hendrix slashed through 24 yds of Trojan defenders for a 6-pointer. The remaining TD was credited to Bruce Coldiron on a 4 yd burst through the line.

Morgan, the extra-point kicker, accounted for an equivalent of a TD except he did it the hard way. He booted 4 PAT conversions and accounted for a 22-point safety when he splattered Trinidad's Kenny Sparks in the end zone.

This victory pushed the Eagles' district record up to 2 wins and 1 loss. Their season tally stands at 7-2.

This week Milano meets Normangee on their home field for homecoming.

Yoemen Win District

By Fritz Pratt

Cameron's Fighting Yoemen halted Buffalo hopes for district title by downing the Giddings squad in a 10-0 shutout before a shivering Friday night crowd at Yoe Field. This win pushes the Yoemen on to meet Del Valle November 17 in a bi-district tilt.

Top rusher for the Yoe offensive squad was Al Hefft with 72 yds. Wayne Kirk ran a close second with 70 yds. These boys aided in piling up the total 195 yards rushing.

Top defenders for the Yoemen were Chapman, Hefft, Jekel, Hosch and Urban.

Most of the Giddings tackles were the work of captain James Dubcak. Offensive Buff standout was Larry Sanders.

Yoemen took off with a bang as Miller pulled in Dubcak's opening kick. After a series of fakes, Glenn Fogle came out with the ball, heading for his right sideline. A couple of blocks cleared a small path, and Fogle hit paydirt.

Miller split the uprights with the conversion following the 90 yard sprint, and the score stood at 7-0 with only 12 seconds played.

Larry Sanders returned Miller's kick to the Buffalo 32. The mangling Yoe defense took the field, and the ball was knocked loose on 3rd down. Kirk recovered for the Cameron squad, and the Yoemen had another shot at scoring.

A smashing drive followed with Kirk picking up 4 yds Al Hefft 26, and Crouch adding one more. The only loss of yardage came on a breakthrough by the Buffaloes as Fogle was dropped for 6 lost.

But after crushing through 2 first downs, the drive stalled. Miller was called in to boot a 3 pointer but the try was too wide.

The Yoe defense met the Giddings squad on the Buffalo 20 and allowed a scant 2 first downs. Giddings QB, Curtis Namken was forced to hit the airways. The first aerial he threw was snagged by Hefft from his defensive halfback spot. Hefft stepped off 5 yds before being hauled down.

Fine pass coverage by Lafferty, Chapman, and Fogle, as well as tackles by Maddox, Barrett and John Hosch, held the Giddings eleven from a first down. Dubcak punted on 4th down, and Fogle returned the ball for 30 yds and into Buffalo territory.

A second quarter drive saw Kirk knock off 7 yds, Crouch 6 yds, and Hefft 4. Fogle piled up 10, but losses on other plays whittled it down to 1. The drive was halted when a Fogle pass was pulled in by a Giddings back.

On the 1st play from scrimmage Crouch shattered a couple of tackles and piled up 32 yds. Fogle sprinted off 6 more yds, but losses on preceeding plays cut the yardage to 1 gained. Miller was called in for another try at a 3 pointer. The kick sailed true and the score was 10-0 and stayed that way for the rest of the game.

Following Sanders' return of a Miller kickoff, the Cameron defense dug in. But the Buffaloes were a determined squad as they rolled over 2 first downs.

The scoreless second half saw Giddings start a drive from its 21 all the way to Cameron's 27, where Kirk broke through, throwing Sanders for a loss to the 36, ending the threat.

Fogle intercepted to halt another drive, and Cameron controlled the ball for the rest of that period. A last-minute pass by Giddings was intercepted by Hefft on the Yoe 45.

Herald To Name 'Player Of Week' For Basketball

Basketball season is to begin sometime during the latter weeks of this month. The present roundball schedule for the Yoemen is uncertain, since the Cameron gridsters are still on the rise. But, if football does not interfere, the Yoemen should hit court competition on the 21st.

Coming each week with coverage of the games, the Cameron Herald will name a player of the week. This choice will not necessarily be the high-point man of the week's games, but will be the player who puts out a higher performance than previously given. The player will be chosen on a basis of either offensive or defensive efforts, or both.

At the end of the season, the Yoeman who has been named player most often will be named Most Valuable Round-Baller for '67-'68. Runners-up will also be recognized.

Tigers Splatter Ducks 40-14

Rockdale Tigers ruined the Taylor Ducks' homecoming by running over them, 40-14.

Instead of the usual H. Earl Marion show, this Rockdale game was a different story. Although Marion piled up 149 yards on 24 carries, the top ground gainer for the Tigers was QB Robert Brady. He carried 12 times for 165 yards and 2 scores.

On the 8th play of the game, Brady blasted through 57 yards of Ducks to paydirt. Tiger guard Mike Speer booted the PAT.

Three plays later, Leonard Winn, a Taylor tailback, scampered 65 yds to a TD but a clipping penalty nullified the 6 points.

Later in the same quarter, the Ducks got another shot at a TD, and made it good. Calvin Schaeffer got the score with a trap-play which was good for 53 yards. Eddie Jinkins booted the extra point to tie the score, 7-7.

The next TD was scored by Rockdale as the Tigers marched 65 yards in 11 plays. This drive was sparked by Richard Kubiak, James Crocker, and Brady who put in a 22 yard sprint. Crocker finished the drive by a scoring burst from 1 yd out. Speer's PAT try missed and the score was 13-7.

Rockdale put in another 6-pointer before halftime with a 9-play, 70 yd drive. Brady again sparked this drive with a 32 yd sprint and a 13 yd pass to Crocker. Marion got final yard and Speer split the uprights. Halftime score -- 27-7.

The Tigers took the opening 2nd half kick off and drove 65 yds in 11 plays. Marion took the final yard and Speer booted the PAT.

On the next Tiger possesion, Marion shook loose from a couple of tackles for 29 yds and a TD. Speer's kick sailed true.

Taylor now marched to paydirt in a 16 yd drive in 7 plays. QB James Schroeder carried most of the yards with his running and passing. The TD came on an 18 yd bomb to end Arnold Cuba. Jinkin's extra point kick was good.

Brady finished scoring for the night with a 64 yd scoot around end to the end zone. Glen Chmelar booted the PAT.

Top ground gainer for the Ducks was Schaeffer with 62 yds on 5 plays, followed closely by Wynn with 49 yds in 15 carries.

Linebackers Kubiak and Speer, along with linemen Curik, Chmelar, Farr, and Young led the stony Tiger defense. Taylor defenders shining were Cuba, Rubino, Kerlin, and Pankonien.

This victory gives Rockdale a 7-1 season record and 5-1 in district 13AAA play. Taylor dropped to a 6-3 season and 4-2 district.

This week Rockdale meets the Belton Tigers in Rockdale.

Badgers Downed By Coolidge58-37

The Buckholts Badgers were downed by the Coolidge Yellow Jackets in a non-district 6-man tilt.

The Badgers' season record is now a 3-5.

Coolidge led by 6 points as they entered the 2nd quarter. But the Badger guarding wall weakened for a few minutes and Coolidge halfback Robert Yarbrough went wild. In these 12 minutes the Yellow Jacket back piled up 24 points in 4 TD sprints.

Top scorer for the Badgers was sophomore Norman Haisler as he piled up 30 of Buckholts' 37 points. His 5 TDs included two 30 yard scampers around the ends. The other 3 scores came on line bucks from within 5 yds of the goal line.

Kenneth Marek got the remaining Badger TD on a 30 yd romp around end. He also accounted for the conversion by taking a pass into the end zone from Buckholts' field general, Allen Barkemeyer.

This week the Badgers host the Ogelsby six on their home field at 7:30. Jonesboro will represent district regardless of the outcome of the rest of the district games.

New Alcoa Plant At Marshall To Produce Aluminum Conductor

MARSHALL

Aluminum Company of America today announced it will build a multi-million dollar plant near here to supply bare and covered aluminum conductor to the nation's booming electrical industry.

Construction will begin immediately, with initial production scheduled for early 1969. When in full operation, the facility will provide upward of 400 jobs in this East Texas community, only a few miles from the Louisiana state line.

Output of the new Texas plant will augment Alcoa's production of aluminum conductor at Massena N. Y., and Vancouver, Wash. Most of the Marshall plant's output will go to public and private utility companies for use in new electrical transmission lines.

The 500-acre plant site is five miles east of Marshall, a Harrison County city of 26,000, about 200 acres of the site area will be developed for construction, including a 600 by 1000 foot plant building to house production equipment.

Alcoa's current operations in Texas include a smelter and bauxite refining complex at Point Comfort, and a smelter at Rockdale. Expansions under way at Rockdale involve a mill to produce redraw rod. Nearly all of the rod which will be converted to conductor at Marshall is expected to come from Rockdale.

LAST RIDE
By Bill Rogers

Gather around folks and you shall hear,
Of the famous ride of Paul Revier.
Well, he stepped on the starter and stepped on the gas,
And put her in gear and was off in a flash.
By the time he had arrived at the first little town
His huge back tires had begun to settle down.
Raising his voice over the pipes with a mighty yell,
He warned that the British dragsters were hot on his tail.
By now he had reached the end of third gear
So he yanked her in fourth for the whole country to hear
The screaming and squalling of the huge back tires
Which by now had melted down to the wires.
By now he was reaching over three hundred and eighty
And little Betsy was no longer a lady
But a screaming monster of melting steel
With Paul hanging steadfast to the wheel.
By now the British were getting so close
The seat of Paul's pants were beginning to roast.
So he stamped his foot down to the floor
And Betsy stood up with a flaming roar
Well, he left the road with a blinding flash,
And the British haven't yet heard the returning crash.

Tips From Tippit

There seem to be quite a few non-believers in wearing seat belts these days. They offer all kinds of excuses as to why they should go rolling out of their cars and get mangled. They seem to want to take their auto accidents the hard way -- the final way.

You hear it all around -- I wouldn't buckle on a seat belt. I'd be safer getting thrown out.

Well, you'd better not believe it. The facts just won't back you up. In fact, your chances of getting hurt -- bad -- are much greater if you get thrown out, and mangled by the rolling iron and glass, than if you stay with the machine.

So, let's play a little game that could save your life, and mine. I'll promise to wear my auto seat belt every time I go anywhere in a car. Even the moment I back out of the garage. But I want you to do the same....until we get into the habit.

We'll make it such a good habit - by checking on each other - that we'll get "hooked" for good. So we wouldn't think of kicking it.

They say the habit will stick with you for a lifetime -- a long, long, lifetime. And we'll get to feel real good wearing seat belts. Let's find out.

4-H Gold Star Awards To Be Presented At Saturday Program

Peggy Stephens and David McClaren will receive Gold Star Awards at the county Awards Program and banquet Saturday, November 11, at Simon George Hall in Cameron.

The award is given each year to one boy and one girl in the county who are the most outstanding 4-H'ers in the county. They must have shown achievement in leadership, citizenship and new skills through projects.

Peggy Stephens

Gold Star Girl for Milam County is Peggy Stephens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Stephens of Rockdale.

Peggy has carried projects in Citizenship, Civil Defense, Foods and Nutrition, Recreation, Swine, Beef, and Home Improvement.

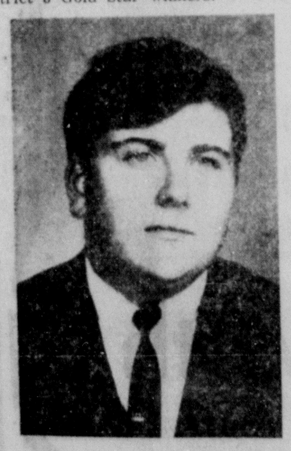
She has served as treasurer, secretary, council delegate, and vice president of her local club, and is presently serving as secretary to the Milam County 4-H Council. She has also been a member of various local and county committees.

She has been active in several demonstration contests, placing 1st in the county with her Civil Defense Demonstration in 1965, 1966, and 1967. She placed first in district in 1966 and 1967, and has been active in the county and district Share-The-Fun contest.

Peggy has been an active 4-H Club member for the past five years. She comes from a true 4-H family with both of her sisters and her brother active in 4-H work and her parents serving as adult leaders.

Peggy entered her records in Safety this year and will receive the Safety Award at the banquet.

Both Peggy and David were honored by the Electric Cooperatives of Texas and the Texas Agricultural Extension Service at a banquet in Stephenville at Tarleton State College, Nov. 4, for the District 8 Gold Star winners.



David McClaren

David McClaren, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. McClaren Jr., of Cameron, has been a member of the county-wide 4-H Club for nine years. David will be presented the Gold Star Award at the 4-H Awards Program and banquet.

During David's years of club work he has carried projects in Beef, Dairy, Field Crops, Horses, Poultry and Garden. He has served as president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, reporter and parliamentarian of his local club.

David started raising fat steers for show in 1957. Since that time he has had the Grand Champion Steer at the Milam County Livestock Show seven years. He has also shown at the Houston and San Antonio Livestock shows, where he has shown as high as Reserve Champion of the Shorthorn Division.

David also showed the Grand Champion dairy animal of the county show and won blue ribbons for nine years in the County Broiler Show.

David said this about his 4-H work, "When answering the question, what 4-H has meant to me, I look to my past and future. I know that my 4-H training will mean more to me later in life than it does now. In 4-H I have gained knowledge through 4-H activities that I would not have received anywhere else."

ASCS

By Alva E. Sanders

Details of the 1968 Feed Grain program have been announced. Producers on farms with a corn or grain sorghum base may take part in the program and become eligible for diversion payments, price support payments, and price support loans.

Some of the key provisions of the 1968 voluntary feed grain program are the required 20 percent diversion, additional diversion up to 50 percent of the feed grain base, price support payments on planted acreage up to 50 percent of base, plus exceptions made for the small farm.

To take part in the program, producers must divert 20 percent of the base acreage of corn and grain sorghum. No diversion payments will be made for this minimum diversion, except for small farm acreages. This is the same as in 1966 and 1967.

Additional acreage diversion will be possible up to a total of 50 percent of the base or 25 acres, whichever is larger, the same as in 1966. The acreage diversion payment rate will be 45 percent of the total price support rate times the projected yield.

Exceptions were again made for small farm diversion payments. A farm with a base of 25 acres or less will get payment on the first 20 percent acreage diversion at 20 percent of the total support rate times the yield, and at the regular 45 percent payment rate on remaining acreage diverted.

As in 1967, producers with a feed grain base up to 125 acres can reduce this temporarily down to 25 acres and still be eligible for the small farm provision on the condition that no corn or grain sorghum will be planted for harvest on the farm and the 25 acres are diverted.

Participants will receive price support payments for acres planted up to 50 percent of the total feed grain base.

Price support loan levels under the 1968 program will be at the 1967 level. For corn $1.05 per bushel; grain sorghum $1.61 per hundredweight. Price support payments will continue at 30 cents per bushel for corn and 53 cents per hundredweight on grain sorghum, based on planted acreage up to one-half of the farm base times the projected yield.

To qualify for the 1968 program benefits, producers must sign up at the ASCS office between February 5 and March 15, 1968.

90 At Shortcourse

By J. D. Moore

Ninety stockmen attended the beef cattle shortcourse meetings held in Rockdale, Thorndale, and Cameron Oct. 30, 31, and Nov. 1.

U. D. Thompson, specialist in cattle nutrition, pointed out ways to figure the cost per pound of the protein needs of a thousand pound cow, using several sources of commercially available protein feeds. He used the chemical analysis of Coastal Bermudagrass to show the problems of supplying adequate nutrition from it, particularly after deterioration has occured due to cold, wet weather.

At the Thorndale meeting, James Denton used experiment station figures to show the cost of keeping a cow to be $88.90 per year. This figure includes pasture rent, feeds, labor, interest on operating capital, interest on investment, as well as replacement cost. He showed the cost of raising a calf to be $105.

Cost of raising a replacement heifer at the rate of a 14 percent replacement each year was $142; $4.55 of this cost is added to cow cost each year.

Denton pointed out that since a number of these cow cost items are fixed, there are steps stockmen can take to offset some of these expenses. Crossbreeding, increasing the percent calf crop, calving during October and November, and keeping accurate records are ways to cope with the problems.

Dr. C. M. Patterson, extension veterinarian, and Dr. Robert Titsworth, local vet, discussed animal health at the Thorndale meeting. Dr. Patterson told the group that cattle poisoning from feeding Urea as a protein feed is not likely to occur if fed according to recommendations. Dr. Titsworth pointed out that "Lepto" is a wet-weather cattle disease and is likely to occur following periods of wet, rainy weather.

Both vets agreed that a common disease such as blackleg continues to cause cattle losses due to the failure of stockmen to systematically vaccinate calves after 3 months of age and revaccinate animals to be kept in the herd.

L. A. Maddox, extension specialist in cow-calf production, used research results to show that hybrid vigor through a cross-breeding program can add to a more efficient cattle program. He said a first cross cow bred back to a Charolais, Santa Gertrudis, or a Brown Swiss bull gave the most efficient calf.

It was pointed out that a cow herd is a major investment; it is a big step for an owner to sell his herd and buy crossbreds. However, results have been outstanding. Average weaning weight of straight bred calves for the past eleven years is 392 pounds. Calves from first-cross cows are averaging 420 pounds at weaning time. The average weaning weight of the three-breed cross calves is about 460 pounds.

TEXAS GRAIN SUPPLIES

Oct. 1 stocks of all grains -- wheat, grain sorghum, corn, oats, barley and rye--in Texas are below a year ago, reports the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service.

Holdings of corn and grain sorghum exclude the 1967 crop, while wheat, oats, barley, and rye include the current crop.

Texas Hunters Will Outnumber American Soldiers In Vietnam

AUSTIN

With Texas hunters this year outnumbering American soldiers in Vietnam almost two to one, the Texas Safety Association today issued a special "Field Alert" calling for caution in the handling and shooting of firearms, and citing this weekend as a particularly hazardous period with the season opening for both game birds and animals in many Texas counties.

Approximately one million Texas sportsmen are expected to take to the woods this year in search of surplus game, the Safety Association noted. This is an increase of several thousand hunters over last year and calls for the exercise of full self-control.

As a hunter moves cautiously through a field, all his senses are focused on locating and bagging his game, and unless he is in full control of himself, he is likely to blast away at the slightest movement or sound.

The safety organization noted that each year many hunters are killed when they are mistaken for a deer, a squail, or even a rabbit. "Blind" shooting at sounds in deep underbrush is the sign of a dangerous "greenhorn." A hunter should fire only when he has positively identified his target as legal game.

Hunters, except duck hunters in blinds, should wear bright red or yellow caps and jackets to make identification easier for other hunters.

Before shooting, a hunter should make sure that no one is in his zone of fire. This is particularly true when hunting in underbrush as bullets fired from high-powered rifles travel great distances.

A hunter should never lean a loaded gun against anything -- a tailgate, a tree, a bush or a stump as the gun can fall over, be kicked, or knocked down by a dog, causing it to fire.

When the hunt is over, hunters should make sure their guns are unloaded. Loaded guns should never be carried in a moving vehicle as rough riding or an accident can easily cause a gun to discharge.

In preparing for the hunt, the Safety Association urged all young hunters to learn their hunting safety rules well. Last year, over one-half of the victims of hunting accidents in Texas were youths under age 21.

Sales Tax Town Meeting . . .

The Cameron City Council is calling a Town Meeting for Tuesday, November 14, to hold discussion on the prospect of a City Sales Tax vote.

A number of Texas towns already have voted it in, including Taylor, Elgin and Austin.

Community revenue for necessary improvements is a serious problem. Property owners, even in small towns, feel the pinch from numerous agencies needing support. The city sales tax is 1 per cent of any purchase and in those cities carrying for it, the vote has been overwhelming. Only one, Electra, in West Texas, has defeated it of 15 voting on the question in September, according to Texas League of Municipalities.

These are things the City Council wants interested property owners (and who is not a property owner of some kind?) to discuss. A round table of city officials will raise the question and call for questions from the floor.

Those interested in Cameron's growth and the means to sustain it should find this meeting interesting.

John Nance Garner . . .

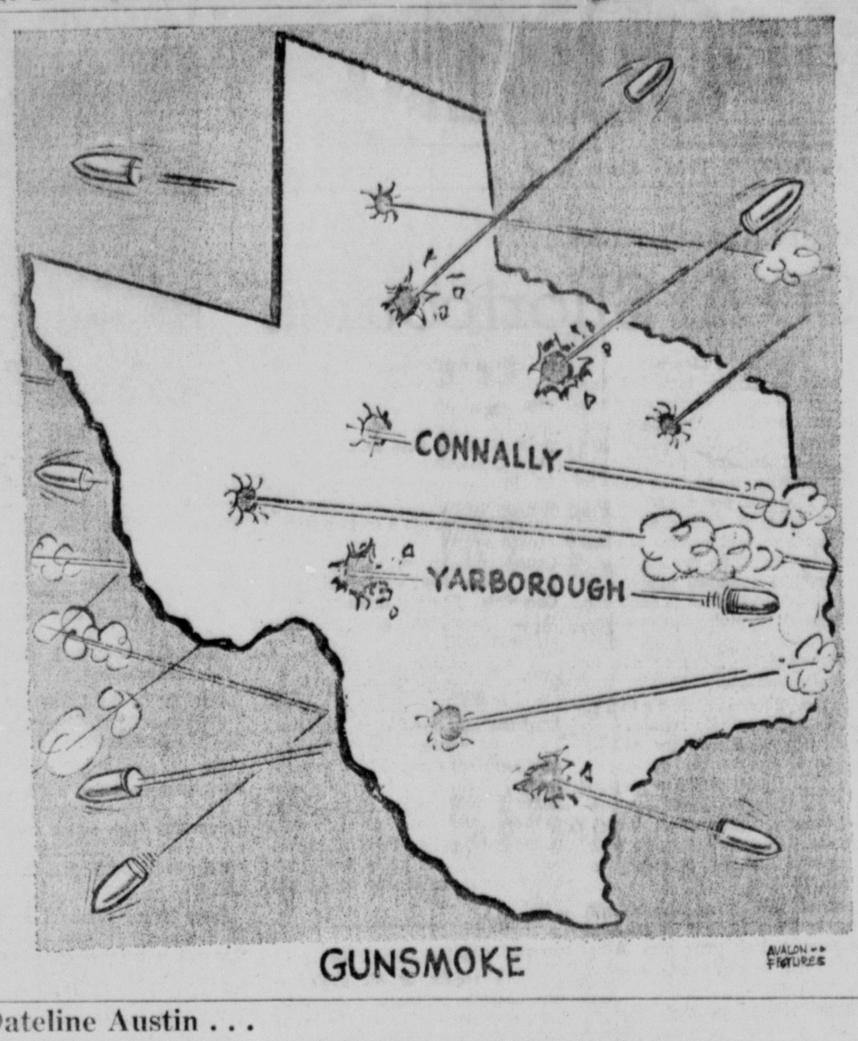
A famous Texan of humble back - ground died earlier this week when John Nance Garner, at 98, passed on quietly.

He was the running mate of FDR in 1932 and 1936, but broke with Roosevelt in 1940 when he sought a third term. Garner also criticized Roosevelt for attempting to "pack the Supreme Court" in the late '30's. Congress rejected the move.

He was Speaker of the House prior to his nomination and election as vice-president, placing him as president of the Senate. As a Texas congressman, he was minority leader in the 1920's.

"Cactus Jack" was hoping to live 100 years. And in this 99th year, he died quietly. He had not been back to Washington since the 1941 Inaugural. It was about this time another Texan, Lyndon B. Johnson, was gaining national political stature, and someday was to succeed Garner when elected a vice-president of the United States.

And during now President Johnson's first term, a prominent Texas political leader is gone.



THE FAMILY LAWYER

The Catch-All Crime

Sassing a policeman. Using obscene language in a church. Clanging a school bell in the dead of night.

Each of these acts, even though different in nature, has at one time or another been held to be the same offense: "breach of the peace."

In fact, every crime used to be described as a breach of the peace. Gradually, over the years, emphasis has shifted to the special categories of crime, like "murder" or "arson" or "theft."

But it is still true today that, when an act does not fit into a special category, it may nevertheless be punishable under the general heading of breach of the peace —the catch-all crime.

Being only a misdemeanor, breach of the peace is often thought of as a pretty minor matter. True, the penalty is minor. But basic constitutional issues may be involved.

Such as: When does a lawful demonstration turn into an unlawful breach of the peace? When does lawful persuasion turn into an unlawful breach of the peace?

In one case, a member of a religious sect offended two pedestrians in the street by trying to sell them his controversial literature.

However, when charged with a breach of the peace, he was exonerated on the ground that he had used no force and had gone away when rebuffed. The court said the preaching of religious doctrine is given broad leeway under the First Amendment.

But in another case, religious zealots invaded a hotel on a Sunday morning, pounded on various doors, and insisted on talking to people who wanted only to sleep.

This time, the court decided that persuasion had gone too far. Finding the defendants guilty of a breach of the peace, the court said:

"We are aware of no decision that freedom of religion carries with it a freedom to disturb the peace of others in the manner shown here."

In short, breach of the peace marks out a vital boundary between one man's liberty and another man's tranquillity.

Election Week In Texas

By Vern Sanford

AUSTIN

It's election week once more all over Texas.

Voters in 254 counties will decide Saturday (Nov. 11) whether they want six more amendments to the State's Constitution. According to Secretary of State John Hill, voters in five areas of Texas will choose legislators to fill vacancies created by death or resignation. There are six vacant seats in the House of Representatives and one in the Senate.

A light-to-moderate vote is predicted. November 11 is opening day of the deer and turkey hunting season in most counties. This means a lot of hunters will be in the field instead of the voting booth.

However, election day also is Veterans Day, and backers of the proposed amendment to revive the veterans land program are staging an active get-out-the-vote campaign So are supporters of two other amendments -- the one authorizing the state to issue bonds to finance expansion of the Texas parks system and that permitting state officials and employees to hold more than one office.

Seventy candidates, including 14 Republicans, are running for legislative places. Republicans hope to improve their position. Presently they have only three representatives in the 150-member House and one senator in the 31-member Senate.

There are two representative races in Harris County; another in Cameron County; one in Matagorda and Wharton Counties; one in Travis County;; and another in Bailey, Cochran, Hockley, Terry and Yoakum Counties. Twenty Dallas candidates are running for the Senate seat of the late George Parkhouse.

Six constitutional amendments are on the ballot in the following order:

1. To authorize counties to place all their tax revenues in a single general fund, rather than separate, special-purpose funds.

2. To let local political subdivisions which have hospital districts spend tax money for mental health and mental retardation services.

3. To revive the veterans land program through an additional $200,000,000 bond issue, permitting war veterans, including those of the Vietnam conflict, to purchase land on low-interest, 40-year-payback loans.

4. To permit counties to pay medical benefits for their law enforcement officers injured in line of duty.

5. To authorize a $75,000,000 state bond issue (supported by an admission fee at selected parks) for park land buying and development.

6. To permit non-elective state officials and employees to serve on state and federal boards and commissions if there is no conflict of duties.

This is the first general election in Texas since the "scratch out" method of voting was eliminated. Now an "X" indicates your choice.

TAX PICTURE BRIGHTENING?

Top legislative budget planners took a new, slightly brighter reading on the tax outlook last week. But taxpayers still won't be exactly overjoyed.

Legislative Budget Board staff members trimmed their unofficial estimate of revenue needs in 1968 from $192,900,000 to $149,000,000. However, the latter calls for rigid budget economies which lawmakers will find hard to effect in the face of rising costs, growing population and increasing demands for better services.

LBB staffers estimated 1969 general fund spending at $455,800,000. This is just $3,000,000 above the 1968 level. Figure does not include $258,500,000 in automatic foundation school fund transfers and $1,500,000 in water development fund allocations.

Governor's budget office, pointing to an error in general revenue income estimates by the comptroller's office, said it appears that the 1968 tax bill, which legislators must pass in their special session, probably will be in the $130,000,000 to $150,000,000 range. Executive office earlier insisted that $100,000,000 to $130,000,00 would be adequate.

COURTS SPEAK

Third Court of Civil Appeals held as "arbitrary and capricious" the state agency's denial of an application to open a Fort Worth branch office of Oak Cliff Savings and Loan Association. Former State Savings and Loan Commissioner James O. Gerst denied the application in January of 1966.

Same court upheld a $75,000 condemnation award for the purchase of downtown San Marcos land by the city's Urban Renewal Agency. Agency appealed the jury award of the Hays County court for 8,445-square-feet of property as excessive.

UNEMPLOYMENT TAX CUT

Forty percent of Texas employers will pay lower unemployment compensation payroll taxes next year -- and save about $15,000,000.

Reduction was made possible because the program trust fund exceeded $300,000,000 on October 1. Under the law, tax is uct one-tenth of one percent for each $5,000,000 or portion thereof by which the fund passes $300,000,000. Balance now is $319,000,000. Cut is four percent for employers affected.

Fifty-four percent of the employers already have earned a minimum statutory rate of 1 percent. Another six percent are "excess cost employers" with earned experience rates of 3.1 percent or more. Neither of these groups will be affected by reduction.

PARKS WORK SPEEDED

Sixty-one existing state parks will reach the ultimate in usage and development by 1971, according to Deputy Director Robert G. Mauermann of the Parks and Wildlife Department.

Twenty large-scale construction projects now underway and four others contemplated are expected to be completed by then. Plans call for spending of $3,400,000 on repairs and improvements in 17 other parks.

Major construction projects slated for this biennium include Bentsen-Rio Grande, Lake Brownwood, Caddo Lake, Palmetto, Goliad, Cleburne and Goose Island. Developed from scratch, during the past five years, were: Falcon, Whitney and Martin Dies Jr., Bastrop, Davis Mountains, Old Fort Parker and Kerrville parks received major improvements.

Mauermann estimated $12,500,000 will be spent in improving state parks in three years. He said construction projects totaling $5,700,000 already have been completed, and $2,200,000 worth are in progress.

HAULERS HEARING

Nine truck lines, which currently carry motion picture film and several other specific commodities, seek authority from the Texas Railroad Commission to include any shipments up to 1000 pounds

Applications were opposed by bus lines and other trucking companies which felt the additional service was not necessary.

Hearing required 17 weeks for 600 witnesses.

Commission is studying a 250-page summary of testimonials.

OLD PHILOSOPHER

Dear editar:

Although political writers don't seem to have much better lunch predicting elections than sports writers predicting football games, neither group ever gives up and right now, according to all the newspapers I've found out here in the past few weeks, the speculation is centering on who's going to run for President next year.

I won't go into all the names, politicians are like honorees at a wedding if you leave one out of the paper you're in trouble, but one of the men being speculated on by the writers, Gov. Rockefeller of New York, when asked if he was considering running, said he didn't want to be President.

This seemed to shock the political writers, but not me. I know exactly how he feels.

We might as well face up to it, being President of the United States is not all it's cracked up to be. The salary isn't bad, but that basketball player, Wilt Chamberlain, makes over twice as much and has never been picketed.

Sure, the President gets to fly in an airplane, but millions of Americans fly every week and nobody writes editorials about them.

It's one thing to be able to walk out of your ofice and go to your ranch when you want to, but you're not getting away from yous job because if you're a President it follows you where ever you go.

The average man has enough to do handling his job his health, his family, his in-laws and his neighbors, but a President has all those plus Congress and 200 squabbling nations on earth, not to mention university professors, the Gallup poll, and 200 million American tax payers.

In fact, when you stack it all up, you begin to have a strong feeling for the position of the man who doesn't want to be President, but this doesn't seem to make any difference and I doubt if the office will ever go vacant. Right now there are men all over the country clamoring for the job, but not being a political writer I won't predict who's going to get it. I don't even have any idea of who's going to win the Powderpuff football game.

Yours Faithfully,
J.A.

ON THE AVENUE

Every fall when the leaves turn red, I pay a visit to New York City. There's magic there for me. A pulse of excitement rides the autumn air and no matter what I'm doing, riding the bus on the avenue or browsing in a bookstore, I'm invigorated.

I see exciting plays, visit art galleries and indulge in my love for museums. Shopping in large department stores intrigues my woman's heart. Each year I save some time to sit on a bench and watch the people go by.

I return home refreshed for another year—determined to work harder at my typewriter and improve my work. I am inspired to perfect my craft.

Church-going does the same thing for my inner life. An hour of meditation and worship sends me home with a fresh outlook and a firm resolve to reflect God's love more clearly in the coming week. I am inspired to perfect my life.

Your church is the key to a full life.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . .
. . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Proposed Amendments . . .

Parks, Non-Elective Positions For State Officers Analyzed

Editor's note: Saturday, Nov. 11, Texans will vote on six proposed amendments to the Texas Constitution. Following are propositions 5 and 6, as analyzed by Texas Industrial Conference of Dallas.

Proposition 5 on the Ballot

You will vote FOR or AGAINST: "the amendment to the Constitution of Texas adding a new section to be known as Section 49-e of Article III, authorizing the issuance and sale of Seventy-Five Million Dollars ($75,000,000) in bonds by the State of Texas to create the Texas Park Development Fund to acquire lands for State Park sites and to develop State Parks."

This proposition would authorize issuance of $75,0-0,000 in general obligation bonds of the State for the purpose of acquiring and developing State park sites.

The State Parks & Wildlife Department would operate, maintain and improve the parks. It would have authority to issue and sell the bonds in such form, denominations, and upon such terms as might be prescribed by law. The interest rates on the bonds would be fixed by the Parks & Wildlife Department, but the weighted average annual interest rate could not exceed 4½ percent per annum.

Interest and principal on the bonds would be paid by receipts from admission charges to State parks. If in any year such receipts were not sufficient the amendment would appropriate, without any legislative action being needed, a sufficient amount to pay the principal and interest due, out of the first moneys coming into the Treasury in that fiscal year.

The bonds, together with $7,000,000 of estimated federal aid, would finance a program which the Parks & Wildlife Department believes would be "a self-supporting program, financed by a nominal entrance fee at state parks".

This is the proposed financing for a ten year program which the department calls the priority phase of its long-range outdoor recreation program. During this time the department proposes the acquisition of some 150,000 acres of land for addition to the present State parks system.

Twenty-six new State recreation parks comprising approximately 61,000 acres of land, being no more than two hours time from most Texans and primarily water-oriented, would afford Texans and visitors to the State opportunities to enjoy a variety of outdoor adventures.

The plan also calls for preservation and scenic development of fourteen of the State's most significant, unique and scenic areas comprising some 84,000 acres. It includes action to protect 41 of the State's most significant historical sites which would entail acquisition of about 5,000 acres of land. In addition, the plan provides for expansion and further protection of six existing scenic parks, entailing 5,680 acres, and three existing historic parks with acquisition totalling 560 acres.

Gov. Connally in recommending the plan offered by the Parks & Wildlife Commission said "its initiation and completion should provide Texas with a first-class State Park System meeting the outdoor needs of present and future Texas".

The amendment would be a new section 49-e of Article III of our Constitution.

Proposition 6 on the Ballot

You will vote FOR or AGAINST: "The constitutional amendment allowing non-elective state officers and employees to serve in other non-elective offices or positions under this state or the United States until September 1, 1969, and thereafter only if authorized by the Legislature, if the offices or positions are of benefit to Texas or are required by state or federal law, and there is no conflict of interest with the original office or position; prohibiting elected officers under this state or the United States from holding any other office or position under this state; and adding members of the Air National Guard, Air National Guard Reserve, Air Force Reserve, and retired members of the Air Force to the list of persons exempted."

The Constitution of Texas prohibits payment of a salary or compensation to any person as agent, officer or appointee who holds more than one office or position of honor, trust or profit under this State or the United States. This does not prohibit a person from holding an office under the State or one of its political subdivisions and at the same time serving in some capacity with a private enterprise.

Our Constitution exempts from this rule the officers and enlisted men of the National Guard, the National Guard Reserve, the Officers Reserve Corps of the United States and the retired officers, retired warrant officers and retired enlisted men of the United States Army, Navy and Marine Corps.

The proposed amendment would add to this exemption list the officers and enlisted men of the Air National Guard, the Air National Guard Reserve and the Air Force Reserve and the retired officers, retired warrant officers and retired enlisted men of the Air Force.

If this proposition is adopted it would provide for the first two years, that is until September 1, 1969, that a non-elective state officer or employee could hold other non-elective offices or positions of honor, trust or profit under this State or the United States provided (1) the other offices or positions are of benefit to the State, or are required by State or federal law, and (2) there is no conflict with the original office or position for which he receives compensation.

After September 1, 1969, these same conditions would prevail only if authorized by the Legislature by general law and under such restrictions and limitations as the Legislature prescribed in the law.

No member of the Legislature would be allowed to hold any other office or position of profit under this State or the United States.

There have been instances where our constitutional restrictions have prevented a State official or employee from rendering distinguished service to the State. Political subdivisions could often benefit from the experience of State employees serving in a consulting capacity. It has been pointed out that there would be advantages in certain school districts and other governmental agencies being able to hire personnel jointly.

Service on federal advisory boards or committees or jointly holding both federal and State positions might result in a better understanding of the State's position and its needs at the national level and might result in more recognition of the State's attainments. There have been complaints that service on State boards might lead to or imply acceptance of federal authority but proponents of this amendment say that generally the people who have been prevented by our constitutional restriction from performing such service are highly capable persons who would have reflected great credit on our State and whose service would have strengthened State and local government.

This proposal would be an amendment of Section 33 of Article XVI of the Constitution of the State of Texas.

OUTDOORS IN TEXAS

By Vern Sanford

Most counties in Texas now have a special deer-hunting season for archers. But no sport is less understood and free of prejudice than bow hunting.

Far too many people do not understand the sport. They do not comprehend what it is all about. Tendency is to overrate the bow-and-arrows as a weapon of destruction.

Make no mistake about it, the modern bow-and-arrow is lethal. Any resemblance between the bow that the hunter carries today and the one employed by Indians is mere coincidence. The modern bow is capable of driving an arrow through any animal that walks.

Yet it is overrated because many people, not familiar with the weapon, think all a person must do is aim it at a deer, let fly and he's got a dead animal on the ground.

Oh, if it were only that simple!

An outdoorsman once told me that he was against the bow-and-arrow because it would be the ideal weapon for the poacher. A man can drive down the road, spot a deer, let fly with the noiseless weapon, and soon be gone with his dead deer without anyone knowing about it.

Hogwash. No poacher is going to bother with the bow-and-arrow. It is too complex, too difficult, and too unsure. Very few of the deer shot at with arrows are hit.

Let's examine some of the bow-hunters' problems.

First, he must be close to his quarry, preferably within 25 yards or less. This immediately eliminates most hunters. Few have the patience, tenacity and skill to approach this close to a deer. It is much easier to stand off at 100-plus yards and down the animal with a long range rifle equipped with a scope.

But just getting close to the animal doesn't assure a kill. Far from it. Main thing is that the archer must get off his shot undetected. Not only must he get close to the deer, he must shoot without the animal knowing he is anywhere around.

A spooky deer is apt to see the movement when the bow is raised for a shot and the arrow drawn, or it will "jump the string" on the shot. Because sound travels faster than the arrow, a deer often hears the audible twang of the bow string a split second before the projectile arrives, and jumps instantly. Result: the arrow passes by harmlessly.

But suppose everything falls into place. The archer gets close and remains undetected. A sure thing? Nope. Many a deer has been missed under such circumstances.

A bow-and-arrow is much more difficult to master than a rifle. It requires "balanced tackle" and hours and hours of practice. Even so, the slightest mistake at the moment of the shot will result in a miss.

Unlike a rifle which simply is aimed and the trigger squeezed, shooting the bow-and-arrow involves many intricate steps. The arrow must be pulled full length every time. The archer must anchor the arrow somewhere against his face. The release must be smooth. If he violates any of these fundamentals, no two shots will then be alike.

Bowhunting is in involved sport, but a fascinating and challenging one. In bowhunting the accent is on the stalk rather than the kill. It is hunting as hunting was meant to be. That is one reason, no doubt, why its popularity is growing.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our appreciation to our friends and relatives for the many kindnesses, also for the food and flowers. We especially thank Dr. Halbert and the nurses at Halbert Hospital of Rosebud.

May God bless all of you.
